

VECCHIA TORRE

Established in 1959 by approximately fifty members, the Cantina Sociale Cooperativa di Leverano has grown to become the largest and most important cooperative winery of the entire province. The skilful selection of grapes and the use of advanced vinification techniques, while continuing to respect the old traditions, are the quality guarantees the Cantina Sociale Cooperativa di Leverano offers to its customers.

Leverano is located in the heart of the Salento region in an ancient area first inhabited by Massapians and then by Greeks and Romans. This area thrives on farming and is an important wine growing and producing center. The peculiar climatic and soil conditions are what give the territory of Leverano its distinctive quality and set it apart from other territories in the production of excellent quality wines known and appreciated all over the world.
