

VILLA MEDORO

Villa Medoro is owned by the Della Loggia-Morricone family. It has been in the family since 1966 with the object of continuing the family tradition. Under the guidance of Federica Morricone, the winery has taken a new direction. Enologist, Riccardo Cotarella, was hired as the enologist. Investments have been made in the vineyards under the guidance of Pierpaoli Sirch and Marco Simonit. Villa Medoro owns 50 hectares (125 acres) of vineyards in the area of Valle Vomano in the province of Teramo. Most of the vineyards face the impressive Gran Sasso Massif. The soil is predominantly clay and has a limestone presence. The property is located 8 miles from the Adriatic Sea at 200 meters (600 feet) above sea level. All ageing is done in french barriques.

ROSSO DEL DUCA - Montepulciano

REGION: Abruzzo

WINEMAKER: Riccardo Cotarella

GRAPE TYPE: 100% Montepulciano

COLOR: dark inky purple

BOUQUET: Harmonious floral notes

TASTE: Dry, round, silky, with well integrated notes of black skinned fruit, leather, noble tannins, vanilla, and Bing cherries .

BARREL AGEING: 12 Months in barrique

RECOMMENDED DISHES: Rib eye, NY Strip, Venison

CASES PRODUCED: 2500

SERVE: Room temperature; 68° F (20° C)

